

POMME

POMME

Because of a dream, owner Tracy opened this small shop by Southorn Playground. Wanting to “learn from the best”, she studied at Parisian culinary school Le Cordon Bleu, and later apprenticed at classic French bakery Angelina and famed Japanese bakery Fraoula.

In addition to classic French cakes, the shop's cupcakes are sure to make one salivate. Featured in animal designs and miniature sizes, they're simply irresistible. Mildly sweetened to suit the Hong Kong palate, the other beautiful flavours stand out all the more. Silky and moist, they're sure to have you hooked after one bite.

Not many know that the shop provides customized cake services and sells party supplies. It's your one-stop shop for your next Parisian bash. Pomme also rents out space for parties – so why not host your next birthday or work event right here.
